HOME FORWARD's JESUS MENDOZA INTERVIEWED BY SACRAMENTO BEE
Mendoza Provides Rosemont Expert Real Estate Information

Home Forward Real Estate is proud to announce that founder and owner Jesus C. Mendoza was interviewed by the Sacramento Bee for freelance reporter Tinka Davi's community profile of Rosemont. The article will be published in the Sacramento Bee 'Real Estate' section on Saturday, September 27, 2014.

Sacramento Bee 'Real Estate' section is published every Saturday, with a local community highlighted on the front page once per month. Mendoza was asked to provide real estate statistics and a perspective of the real estate market in Rosemont.

Mendoza was excited to be asked to provide insight into his community. "To be able to speak about the community I have lived in for 15 years was a great surprise. I was able to not just provide insight and real estate statistics, but as a resident and a member of the Rosemont Community Association I felt I had an added awareness regarding how those numbers translated into quality of life in my community."
